Prayer Breakfast

October/November 2021

God, our refugee and strength,
bring near the day when wars
shall cease and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know
the peace of heaven through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

...Our Churches are grateful for your prayers and say, 'Thank you'...

BBC

"We thank God for our fortnightly prayer and praise evenings on Zoom. Please pray that these meetings will grow both spiritually and numerically. Please pray for our continuing search for a new minister and the forthcoming visit from a prospective minister. We thank God for his faithfulness and safekeeping."

NBC

"Give thanks to God for our NBC church weekend away which went well and for the new fellowship initiatives about to start, or started recently. Pray for us in our longing to know God and love him more".

KINGS ROAD CHURCH

"Give thanks and continue to pray for the development of God's vision for the church; the Alpha course; the start of a new 13 week DivorceCare online series on 29 October, growth and development of the children's and youth work; our temporary move to larger premises for worship; wisdom for the team planning the redevelopment of our premises and that as a church we may be firmly rooted and established in love".

GIDEONS

"Give thanks for our schools in Dacorum. Pray for the Christian staff in our schools that they will be a constant witness of their faith.

Pray for guidance as we make contact with our schools to offer New Testaments, that we will receive responses on our free offers.

Please pray for the students that they will be blessed with The New Testaments in their hands and that they will use the helps and guides to know the love of Jesus for each of them".

ST. MARY'S

Give thanks for the installation of the new AV system.

Pray for more helpers for the Sunday school and youth work.

Pray for those who have not returned to church due to ill-health.

We remember those who are going to join in with services for the first time this year.

ALL SAINTS

"Give thanks that we are back worshipping together and other activities are restarting.

Pray for volunteers - for energy, inspiration and time and for wisdom in decision-making".

ST PETERS'

"We pray for all the many uniformed groups that will take their part in the Remembrance Day parade this year. Remember the congregation members who are ill at this time and the sadness of the bereaved".

HOLY TRINITY - POTTEN END

"Pray for our church as we seriously explore becoming a bronze accredited eco-church. We ask for inspiration, passion and risk taking as we not only put into action how our church building and churchyard can be more environmentally friendly but also how we as individuals can take seriously the commitment to safeguard the integrity of creation".

ST JOHN'S - BOURNE END

"Give thanks that we have been able to start pub night again and pray for other opportunities to build relationships with the village".

SUNNYSIDE

"Give thanks for the Listening Project which is helping us 'take the pulse of our parish' and pray for wisdom to see how God is calling us to respond".

Please Pray for all our churches throughout Berkhamsted and the surrounding villages.
